A) General Terms and Conditions (GTC)

1. Scope

The following General Terms and Conditions ("GTC") shall apply to the legal relationship constituted by the order, the purchase and/or use of tickets for events and/or accreditations (e.g. for service providers or guests etc. of the ALRV [tickets and accreditations within the meaning of the GTTC together „Tickets“]) for events of the ALRV of the Aachen-Laurensberger Rennverein e.V., Albert-Servais-Allee 50, 52070 Aachen / Postfach 50 01 01, 52085 Aachen, Germany („Host“) from the Host or other authorised third-party provider, and for the attendance at the show grounds in and around the Albert-Servais-Allee 50 in 52070 Aachen ("Event Site"). By purchasing or using the tickets, the respective purchaser of the tickets ("Customer") accepts the validity of the GTTC. It is irrelevant whether the tickets are issued to the Customer as a paper ticket or Print@Home ticket or mobile ticket.

2. Request

2.1 Procurement: All Ticket orders will be processed according to the date of receipt. The Host's offers shall be subject to change. Tickets for Events organised by the Host may only be purchased from the Host or from an authorised third-party provider. Whether a third-party provider is authorised by the Host may be inquired from the Host via the contact details specified in Section 13 ("Contact"). Platforms such as viagogo, Global Ticket, StubHub etc. are expressly not authorised third-party providers and cannot offer valid tickets. If provisions deviating from these GTC apply to the purchase of Tickets from authorised third-party providers, these GTC shall take precedence in the relationship between the Customer and the Host, subject to them having been duly implemented in the purchase process or at the latest upon admission to the Event Site.

2.2 Order: In case of online Ticket orders, a personal password will be issued upon registration of the Customer. The Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that no unauthorised third parties have access to his/her password. The Customer shall be liable for all unauthorised use by third parties unless the Customer is not responsible for the respective unauthorised use. In case of online orders of Tickets via the CHIO Aachen ticket shop, the Customer submits a binding offer to conclude a contract with the Host by means of placing his/her order through the online command provided for this purpose. The Host confirms receipt of the contract offer to the Customer online ("Order Confirmation"). The Order Confirmation shall not yet be construed as acceptance of the offer and shall be subject to the availability of the Tickets ordered and the consideration of particular circumstances (e.g., safety or health aspects). The contract between the Host and the Customer shall only be concluded (under these GTC) upon transmission of the Tickets (including electronic delivery, e.g., in case of print@home or mobile Tickets or deposit of the Tickets). In case of another order (e.g., by telephone), the contract shall be concluded upon handover or delivery of the Tickets.

2.3 Authorised Points of Sale: In case of orders via authorised points of sale the respective contract shall be concluded at the time of transmission (including electronic dispatch, e.g. in the case of print@home or mobile tickets, handover or deposit of the Ticket (Sections 4.3 and 4.4) on the basis of these GTC.

2.4 Particular Stipulations and BOT purchases: The Host reserves the right, at its own discretion, to limit the procurement channels for ordering Tickets and/or the total number of Tickets available for an Event or individual Customer s, to grant or deny discounts in accordance with Section 3 and/or privileged conditions, or to provide Tickets without charging any costs or fees.

Irrespective of the method of purchase in accordance with Section 2.1, any ticket purchase using automated procedures designed to circumvent restrictions on the number of Tickets to be purchased by a person or other regulations applicable to the sale of Tickets (so-called BOT purchases) shall be inadmissible and shall entitle the Host to refuse or cancel an order and to impose a contractual penalty in accordance with Section 10.

3. Discounted and Combi-Tickets

3.1 Entitlement and Proof of Discount: Entitlement to discounts for the purchase of Tickets is determined in the respective order process in accordance with Section 2. Double discounts shall not be granted. Effective date for the respective entitlement to a discount is the day on which the Event for which a ticket is purchased is taking place. Proof of the current official certificate entitling the Customer to a discount must be presented upon request when purchasing the Ticket and be available upon admission to the Event Site and be presented upon request by the Host or security personnel. Customers who do not bring or do not possess a valid certificate may be refused admission to the Event Site; the refused Customer shall not be entitled to any compensation or reimbursement of expenses.

¹ For ease of interpretation, use is made of the generic masculine. This is not meant to imply discrimination of any kind within the meaning of Section 1 AGG.

3.2 Transfer and Upgrade: For the transfer of discounted Tickets, the provisions in Section 7 shall apply subject to the additional condition that a transfer shall only be permitted if the new Ticket holder likewise fulfils the respective discount requirements and provides proof thereof in accordance with Section 3.1, except for cases where the new Ticket holder pays a surcharge in the amount of the difference between a discounted and a non-discounted Ticket for the respective Event ("Upgrade") prior to entering the Event Site. The Host may charge a service, processing and, if applicable, a shipping fee for the Upgrade in accordance with the price list.

3.3 Customised Tickets: The Host may, at its own discretion, issue Tickets without charging any costs or fees ("Customised Tickets"). The issuance of Customised Tickets is always linked to a specific purpose, which is specified by the Host separately. Therefore, specific regulations deviating from the regulations for regular Tickets in accordance with these GTC may apply.

3.4 Combi-Tickets: The Host may, at its own discretion, offer Tickets in combination with the entitlement for the Customer to use local public transport throughout the respective tariff area for the purpose of arriving at and departing from the Event Site ("Combi-Ticket"). The sole responsibility for the transport service with the Combi-Ticket shall remain with the respective public transport operator. The price of the Combi-Ticket is included in the price list as part of the total Ticket price and is, therefore, charged irrespective of the actual use of the transport service by the Customer. There shall be no pro rata refund in case of non-utilisation.

4. Prices and Payment, Delivery

4.1 Prices and Payment: The Ticket price shall be subject to the price list of the Host in effect at the time of the order - which is available in the CHIO Aachen ticket shop or, if applicable, at any authorised third-party provider. Orders shall only be processed with the accepted payment methods (e.g., credit card, PayPal, Sofortüberweisung, invoice in case of timely orders by telephone) specified in the respective order process according to Section 2. In addition to the Ticket price and any shipping fees in accordance with Section 4.2, the Host may charge the Customer a reasonable service fee (e.g., advance booking fee, telephone order fee) for services provided in the Customer's interest.

In case of failure of payment for reasons attributable to the Customer (e.g., insufficient credit card or bank account funds, chargeback, failure of payment within the payment term specified in the invoice), the Host shall be entitled to cancel the order without refund or to suspend the respective Tickets; they shall lose their validity. Any additional costs incurred shall be reimbursed by the Customer. The Host reserves the right to claim further compensation for damages.

4.2 Postal Delivery: At the Customer's request, the Tickets will be sent by postal delivery at the Customer's expense. For postal delivery, a handling fee shall be charged, which shall be contractually agreed on a case-by-case basis. The Host shall be free to choose the shipping provider at its own discretion.

4.3 Electronic Delivery: In case of transmission of electronic Tickets (e.g., print@home, or mobile Tickets), the ordered Tickets will be sent to the Customer electronically (e.g., by e-mail) through a QR code and in PDF format. For electronic Tickets, no shipping fees will be charged. The QR code for admission to the Event Site must be made permanently available on the smartphone or printed out clearly readable on A4 paper and brought to the Event. Non-readable QR codes or printouts not attributable to a fault of the Host shall generally not entitle to admission to the Event Site.

4.4 Deposit: Where Tickets are ordered at short notice, the Host may, in individual cases and at its own discretion, agree to deposit the Tickets for collection with the Host. Tickets may only be collected by the Customer, or a third party authorised in writing by the Customer on presentation of a valid official identification document (identity card, etc.).

5. Revocation, Withdrawal

5.1 No Right of Revocation and Withdrawal: Even if the Host or an authorised third-party provider offers Tickets via distance communication methods within the meaning of Sect. 312c para. 2 BGB and thus a distance selling contract may exist in accordance with Sect. 312c para. 1 BGB, in accordance with Sect. 312g para. 2 No. 9 BGB, the Customer shall not be entitled to right of revocation or withdrawal (either within two weeks or otherwise) when purchasing a ticket. Consequently, any order shall be binding and final and cannot be amended or cancelled subsequently.

5.2 Exchanges and Return: Exchanges and return of Tickets shall be generally excluded. In individual cases, Tickets may be returned or refunded purely as a gesture of goodwill and at the discretion of the Host; in this case, the Host may charge a handling fee; any corresponding claim of a customer shall be excluded. To the extent that a Customer is unable to use his/her Ticket for personal reasons (e.g., illness), the Ticket may exceptionally be transferred to a third party in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.3.

6. Complaint, Defect, Loss

6.1 Ticket Complaints: All questions relating to Tickets, regardless of its nature (paper Ticket, Print@Home Ticket or mobile Ticket) shall be clarified with the Host exclusively. The Customer shall be obliged to check both the Order Confirmation and the Ticket immediately and conscientiously after receipt to ensure that they are free of errors, in particular with regard to quantity, price, date, Event and Event Site. Complaints about Tickets and/or Ticket orders that are recognisably incorrect must be made in text form (e-mail is sufficient) or by post to the Contact and without undue delay, as a rule within five (5) working days of receipt of the Order Confirmation or Ticket. In case of other orders in accordance with Section 2.2, in which the Ticket is handed over, and/or for deposited Tickets in accordance with Section 4.4, the complaint must be made without undue delay; otherwise, the previous provision shall apply accordingly. If the complaint is justified and made in good time, the Host will issue the Customer with a new Ticket free of charge in return for the deletion or handover in hard copy of the Ticket in question. The provisions on complaints expressly shall not apply to Tickets lost in transit in accordance with Section 6.3 or to Tickets that were not ordered, or to cases in which the reason for the complaint is provably attributable to fault on the part of the Host.

6.2 Defect, print@home/mobile-Ticket: Defective print@home or mobile Tickets that are not displayed due to a defective mobile phone or low battery, or Tickets that contain incorrect personal data, will be rejected at the entrance to the Event Site. The Host shall not be responsible for defective, lost, or stolen Tickets and shall not be obliged to reissue such Tickets unless the defect of a Ticket or other complications relating to the access procedure to the Event Site are entirely or predominantly attributable to the Host. In this case, the Host shall, as far as possible and subject to the legitimation of the Ticket holder, either rectify the defect or block the ticket in question after notification of the defect and issue a new Ticket to the Ticket holder on presentation of sufficient proof.

6.3 Loss of Tickets: The Host must be informed of any involuntary loss of Tickets purchased from the Host via the Contact in text form (e-mail is sufficient) or by post without undue delay. The Host shall be entitled to cancel these Tickets immediately after the respective notification. In case of loss of a Ticket subject to electronic access control, a new Ticket can be issued following notification, blocking of the original Ticket and verification of the Customer's identity, provided that the Customer submits a corresponding affidavit regarding the loss of the Tickets. Service and processing fees amounting to 20% of the face value of the Ticket may be charged for the reissue, except where the Host or third parties commissioned by the Host are provably responsible for the loss. In case of fraudulent notification of loss, the Host may file a criminal complaint. For security reasons, it shall not be possible to reissue other lost Tickets.

7. Transfer of Tickets

7.1 Legitimate Interest: To prevent the unauthorised resale of Tickets, in particular for safety reasons, to prevent price speculation on Tickets, to maintain the greatest possible variety of fans with Tickets at socially compatible prices, it is in the legitimate interests of both the Host and the Customers and spectators, to appropriately restrict the unauthorised resale of Tickets.

7.2 Prohibited Resale and Purchase: Tickets are sold exclusively for private use. The purchase of Tickets intended for commercial or public resale shall be prohibited and shall be the sole prerogative of the Host. Against this background, the Ticket holder is particularly not permitted to,

- a) to offer for sale or transfer and/or resell or pass on Tickets publicly, in particular at auctions or on the Internet (e.g., on eBay, Kleinanzeigen, Facebook) and/or on resale platforms not authorised by the Host (e.g., viagogo, seatwave, StubHub etc.), expressly even if the offer, sale or transfer is effected at no profit or additional charge; or
- b) to transfer Tickets at a higher price than the face value price paid in accordance with the applicable price list (a surcharge of up to 10 % to compensate for transaction costs incurred is permissible); or
- c) to transfer Tickets regularly and/or in large numbers, whether on one tournament day or spread over several tournament days; or
- d) to resell or transfer Tickets to commercial or professional resellers and/or ticket brokers; or
- e) to use Tickets or have them used commercially or profitably without the express prior written consent of the Host, in particular for the purposes of advertising, marketing, as a bonus, as a promotional gift, as a benefit in return or as part of an unauthorised hospitality or travel package; or
- f) to resell or transfer Customised Tickets to persons not fulfilling the purpose linked to the Customised Ticket; or
- g) to resell Tickets if these Tickets were purchased using automated methods intended to circumvent restrictions on the number of Tickets to be purchased by a person (see Section 2.3) or other regulations applicable to the sale of Tickets (so-called BOT purchases); or
- h) to purchase Tickets via so-called BOT-purchases.

7.3 Permitted Transfer: The private transfer of a Ticket for non-commercial reasons, in particular in individual cases of illness or other hindrance of the Customer, is permitted to the extent that it does not constitute a case of unauthorised transfer or purchase within the meaning of Section 7.2 and

- a) The Ticket is transferred via an official resale platform provided and communicated accordingly by the Host (available in the CHIO Aachen ticket shop; "Official Ticket Platform"), to the extent that the transfer of the Ticket for the respective Event is permissible through the resale platform, and the transfer is effected in the way specified for this purpose on the resale platform.; or
- b) the Customer expressly informs the new holder (1) of the validity and content of these GTC, (2) the new holder agrees to the validity of these GTC between him/her and the Host, (3) the new holder agrees to his/her name, address and date of birth being passed on to the Host and to the processing of this data by the Host for the execution of the contract and (4) the Host (in particular due to externally ordered health or other necessary safety measures, but in each case in accordance with applicable data protection law) is informed in good time of the transfer of the Ticket, stating the personal data of the new holder (regularly name, address, date of birth), or the Host has implicitly declared the transfer to the new holder to be permissible.

7.4 Official Ticket Platform: The Host may, at its own discretion, grant the Customer the option of offering a previously purchased Ticket for the specified tournament day for resale to potential recipients via the Official Ticket Platform in accordance with the following provisions.

- a) Before listing a Ticket for resale on the Official Ticket Platform, the Customer must register online on the Official Ticket Platform. In reasonable individual cases, the Host reserves the right to reject offers of Tickets on the Official Ticket Platform. Listing a Ticket does not necessarily lead to a successful resale via the Official Ticket Platform.
- b) As soon as a Customer has placed a Ticket for resale on the Official Ticket Platform, he undertakes not to dispose of his rights arising from this Ticket (e.g. sale, transfer, access to the event) as long as the Ticket is offered for resale. In case of infringement, the Customer shall be liable for any damages or loss arising therefrom. In addition, the Host reserves the right to impose the sanctions set out under Section 7.5 on the Customer or Ticket holder concerned.
- c) The Host shall inform the Customer as soon as the Ticket has been successfully sold on the Official Ticket Platform. Contractual partner of the purchaser on the Official Ticket Platform shall be the Host, not the original Customer. Section 2.2 shall apply accordingly to any orders for Tickets by the purchaser on the Official Ticket Platform. From this point in time, the Customer's offer shall be binding, and the Customer shall forfeit the right of attendance as embodied in his Ticket. The Customer shall receive a credit note from the Host in the amount of the (pro rata) face value price of the respective Ticket less any service, operating and shipping costs incurred by the Host.

7.5 Sanctions in case of unauthorised Transfers: In case of one or more violations of the provisions set out in Section 7.2 and/or other unauthorised transfer of Tickets, the Host shall be entitled to a claim for injunctive relief due to the indicated risk of repetition. In addition, the Host shall be entitled,

- a) not to deliver to the Customer and/or to cancel Tickets that have been used in breach of the provisions in Section 7.2 prior to

- handover or delivery to the Customer; and
- b) to suspend and/or cancel the respective Tickets without refund and to deny the holder access to the Event Site without refund or to expel him/her from the Event Site; and
- c) to exclude Customers involved from purchasing Tickets for a reasonable period of time, up to a maximum of five (5) years, possibly also for events not covered by these GTC; determining the length of the suspension shall be the number of infringements, the number of Tickets offered, sold, transferred or used as well as any revenue generated through resale; and
- d) not to deliver other Tickets already purchased by the Customer affected from the Host, including for comparable Events, to the Customer affected and to cancel them against reimbursement of the price paid; and/or
- e) to impose a contractual penalty on the Customer in accordance with Section 10.

7.6 Data of the new Holder: The processing of the data of the new Ticket holder (usually name, address and date of birth) shall be carried out to fulfil the contracts between him and the Host and between him and the Customer in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 b) GDPR. On the other hand, this data processing shall be carried out to safeguard the legitimate interests of the Host (see Section 7.1) in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 f) GDPR.

8. Rescheduling, Abandonment, Cancellation

8.1 Open Air Events: The Customer acknowledges that the Events are mainly open-air events, which means that the start and realisation of the Events are subject to weather conditions and can be influenced by the local weather. Therefore, in case of unforeseen circumstances rendering the respective Event infeasible to take place, the Host shall be entitled to cancel, postpone, reschedule or, if necessary, abandon the respective Event.

8.2 Rescheduling of the Event: If an Event is rescheduled or relocated, the Tickets shall remain valid. If the respective Event is rescheduled to a different time of the same date, the Customer has neither a (pro rata) refund of the price paid nor a (partial) right of withdrawal vis-à-vis the Host. In case of a long-term rescheduling (i.e., to another date) or relocation of the respective Event, the Customer may withdraw from the contract. Withdrawal must be declared to the Host in text form (e-mail is sufficient). Upon presentation of the respective Ticket, in case of electronically transmitted Tickets, stating the respective order number in the declaration of withdrawal, the Customer shall, at the Host's discretion, either receive a refund of the Ticket price paid (if applicable on a pro rata basis) or a voucher to the value of the respective Ticket price for use in the Host's ticket shop, unless the allocation of a voucher is deemed unreasonable for the Customer; fees already incurred in the Customer's interest (e.g. shipping and handling fees) shall not be refunded.

8.3 Abandonment of the Event: If an Event is cancelled, the Ticket price shall not be refunded unless the Host is responsible for the cancellation; fees already incurred in the interest of the Customer (e.g., shipping and handling fees) shall not be refunded in any case.

8.4 Cancellation or Exclusion of Spectators: If an Event is cancelled or must take place in whole or in part behind closed doors in accordance with respective regulations issued by an association or authority, both the Host and the affected Customer shall be entitled to withdraw from the contract for the purchase of Tickets for the affected Event. The cancellation provisions set out under Section 8.2 shall apply.

8.5 Mandatory Obligation to stay informed: Every Ticket holder shall be obliged to obtain information about possible rescheduling, spectator exclusions and other applicable regulations in good time prior to an Event. Up-to-date information on this can be found at <https://www.chioaachen.de/de/>.

8.6 Expenses: The Host shall not be liable to the Customer for futile expenses (e.g. futile travel and accommodation expenses) in circumstances set out under this Section 8, except where the Host is responsible for the specific circumstance causing the change in the contractual relationship or where a consideration of the conflicting interests of the Customer and those of the Host weighs up for a liability of the Host in the specific case.

9. Admission to and Conduct at the Event Site

9.1 Right of Admission: The Host is not prepared to grant admission to Events and the Event Site to all Ticket holders, but in the sense of a legitimation document in accordance with Section 808 BGB only to those who have purchased Tickets as Customers via the procurement channels in accordance with Section 2.1 or as part of a permitted transfer in accordance with Section 7.3 and who fulfil any other applicable admission requirements (e.g., in accordance with Section 9.4). The Host, therefore, only grants admission to the Event Site ("Right of Admission") to its Customers who are identifiable by means of individualisation elements embedded in or on the Ticket (e.g., name imprint, barcode and/or QR code, etc.) or to third-party purchasers who have permissibly acquired Tickets in accordance with Section 7.3. As proof of identity, the Customer or the respective Ticket holder shall be obliged to bring a suitable official identification document (e.g., identity card, etc.) and to present it at the request of the Host or security personnel. Tickets offered for sale on unauthorised resale platforms or by other unauthorised third parties shall not constitute a Right of Admission and may in particular be subject to the legal consequences set out in Section 9.3. The Host shall fulfil its obligations with regard to the Right of Admission of the respective Ticket holder by granting admission to the Event(s) only once. The Host shall also be indemnified from its obligation to provide respective services to the Customer if the Ticket holder has not acquired an effective Right of Admission in accordance with this Section. At the request of the Host, the Ticket holders shall be obliged - taking into account data protection regulations - to state how and at what price they purchased the Tickets; this may also include providing the name of the reseller of the Tickets.

9.2 Event Site Regulations/Domiciliary Rights: Upon admission to the Event Site, the Customer undertakes to observe the event site regulations, published on-site and permanently available at www.chioaachen.de. These shall apply upon admission to the Event Site, irrespective of the validity of these GTC. At the Event Site, the instructions of the operator of the venue, the Host and the security service must be followed for the implementation of the domiciliary rights. The Ticket holder shall be obliged to follow the instructions of the stewards, security personnel, police and other personnel commissioned by the Host on the Event Site.

9.3 Refusal of Admission: Generally, every Customer or Ticket holder with a validly acquired Right of Admission is authorised to enter the Event Site. However, admission to the Event Site may be refused if

- a) the Customer or Ticket holder refuses to undergo an appropriate inspection of his/her person or the items he/she is carrying by security personnel before entering the restricted area, at the entrance to or on the Event Site; persons induct items and/or animals (cf. Section 12) onto the Event Site without authorisation and/or refuse to be checked by the security staff may be expelled from the Event Site. The Host reserves the right to designate separate control points or entrances for certain objects that are to be brought onto the Event Site; or

- b) the Customer or Ticket holder has already entered the restricted area of the Event Site once and then left thereafter during the same Event; in this case, the Ticket shall be deemed invalid; or
- c) individualisation elements embedded in or on the Ticket (e.g., name imprint, barcode and/or QR code, etc.) have been manipulated, disguised or damaged or an attempt at admission has already been undertaken with the Ticket, to the extent not attributable to the Host; or
- d) the Ticket holder is not identical to the Customer registered as such and identified on the Ticket via the individualisation elements, subject to a case of permissible transfer in accordance with Section 7.3; or
- e) Technical failures clearly attributable to the Ticket holder (e.g. smartphone defective, printout not legible, etc.) mean that electronic access control is not possible.

In case of a legitimate refusal of admission, the Customer or Ticket Holder shall not be entitled to compensation.

9.4 Specific Admission Conditions: For good cause, e.g. due to externally imposed health or other required safety measures, the Host shall be entitled (and, if applicable, obliged), within the scope of data protection regulations, to stipulate specific conditions of admission for the purchase of Tickets or for admission to the Event Site and to enforce compliance therewith: In this context, the Host shall in particular be entitled to,

- a) to set specific requirements or documentation as a prerequisite for the purchase of Tickets and/or admission to the Event Site and to have this verified by the Ticket Holder as a prerequisite for admission; and
- b) to set up specific access time slots for certain Ticket holders. The Ticket holder is then obliged to comply with such time limits. In case of willful or negligent non-compliance, the Ticket holder may be denied access to the Event Site without compensation;
- c) to subject the purchase of Tickets or admission to and presence at the Event Site to additional rules, regulations, and requirements (e.g., provision of additional personal data, admission to the Event Site only during certain time slots). The applicable rules, regulations and requirements will be made available to Customers in good time and must be observed by all Ticket Holders as soon as they are announced. Corresponding instructions from the Host, the police and/or security personnel must be followed.

In case the Customer or Ticket holder fails to fulfil the specific admission conditions in accordance with this Section 9.4 a), b) and c), the Host may, for good cause, refuse the purchase of Tickets or refuse admission to or the presence at the Event Site or expel him from the Event Site and exclude him from purchasing Tickets for a reasonable period of time. Claims for compensation against the Host shall be excluded in such cases. In case of breach, the respective measures set out under Section 7.4 shall apply accordingly. There shall be no right of withdrawal if the concrete specific conditions of admission had already been announced at the time of Ticket purchase or shall lapse at the latest with each entry to the Event Site during the time that the concrete specific conditions of admission apply.

9.5 Repositioning: The Customer acknowledges that the Host shall be entitled, for good cause (e.g., regulatory requirements), to allocate to the Customer seats in the same or a higher category on the Event Site that deviate from the seats ordered; in case of the same or a higher category, no surcharge will be charged; in case of a seat in a lower price category, a corresponding refund of the difference (excluding fees factually incurred) shall be made after the event. In such a case of reallocation, the Customer shall neither be entitled to withdrawal nor to a refund.

9.6 Admission of Children and Minors: Every child or minor shall require their own Ticket for admission to the Event Site. Only children up to and including the age of five (5) who do not occupy their own seat on the Event Site do not require their own ticket for admission to the Event Site. The admission of children and minors shall be subject to the statutory regulations for the protection of minors (in particular the JuSchG). Other or exceeding regulations may result from any conditions imposed by the competent Ordnungsamt. These shall take precedence over the aforementioned regulations.

9.7 Recordings of the Event: Ticket holders and visitors to the Event shall not collect, record, transmit, reproduce or otherwise use or disseminate sound, image, recording, depiction, or results of the Event, to the extent that this is undertaken for public or commercial purposes; recordings for purely private purposes shall be permitted. The distribution or reproduction of sound, image, recording or depiction of the Event or parts of the Event via internet, radio, television, data carriers (e.g., DVDs etc.) or any other current or future media or supporting others in doing so shall be prohibited under any circumstances subject to the prior written consent of the Host. The same shall apply to the support of other persons in such activities.

9.8 Recordings of the Ticket Holder: For public reporting and advertising of the respective Event, the Host and the respective responsible association or third parties commissioned or in any other way authorised by them (e.g., radio, press) may, in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 (1) lit. f of the GDPR, independently of each other, create image and sound recordings that may show the Ticket Holder as a spectator and use them for these purposes. The legitimate interest of the Host or third parties commissioned or otherwise authorised by the Host (e.g., radio, press) is to position and exploit the Event in the media. The legitimate interest of the Host or third parties commissioned or otherwise authorised by the Host (e.g., radio, press) is to position and exploit the event in the media. Further information on data protection can be found under Section 14. In case a Customer purchases Tickets not only for himself but also for other holders with an effective Right of Admission, the Customer shall be obliged to ensure that the information is forwarded to the respective holder.

9.9 Video Surveillance: To ensure the safety of the public at the Event Site and effective law enforcement the Event Site and, in part, its surroundings are monitored with a television system in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 (1) lit. f of the GDPR. The respective recordings are treated confidentially by the Host but can serve as evidence in particular in the event of suspicion and/or the occurrence of criminal offences.

In case of incident-free implementation of an Event recorded by means of a video surveillance system, the recordings will be deleted in accordance with the applicable provisions of data protection law, in particular the GDPR and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG). To the extent regulatory and law enforcement authorities use video surveillance systems on the Event Site and in the surrounding area for the purpose of averting danger and prosecution, this is done under their own responsibility within the meaning of Art. 4 No. 7 GDPR. Further information on data protection can be found in section 14.

9.10 Duty to inform and risk of infection: Every Ticket holder shall be obliged to inform themselves in good time in advance of each event about possible postponements, spectator exclusions and applicable protection and hygiene regulations (current information can be found at www.chioaachen.de). Every ticket holder also recognises that they may contract diseases when attending an event. By attending an event, the Customer consciously accepts this risk.

9.11 Cannabis ban: On the Event Site, in particular in order to protect children and families, an absolute ban on smoking and consumption of Cannabis within the meaning of Section 1 No. 8 of the Consumer Cannabis Act shall apply. In case of violations of the aforementioned prohibitions, the Host and its authorised personnel shall be entitled to expel Ticket holders, Customers and guests from the Event Site at any time without compensation.

10. Contractual Penalty

10.1 Prerequisites: In case of a culpable breach of these GTC by the Customer, in particular of one or more provisions set out under Section 7, the Host shall be entitled to impose a reasonable contractual penalty of up to EUR 2,500 on the Customer in addition to the other measures allowed for under these GTC and without prejudice to any further claims for compensation.

10.2 Amount: The amount of the contractual penalty shall be determined by the quantity and intensity of the violations, the type and degree of culpability (intent or negligence), the efforts of the Customer or Ticket holder (as applicable) in making restitution, whether there is a repeated infringement, and, in case of unauthorised resale of Tickets, the quantity of Tickets offered, resold, as well as any proceeds or profits generated by the resale. The contractual penalty may exceed the proceeds or profits realised from the resale.

11. Liability

Attendance at and on the Event Site shall be at own risk. The Host shall not be liable for damage caused by its own slight negligence or by that of its vicarious agents or assistants, except for cases of a breach of material contractual obligations or damage to life, limb, or health; the same shall apply to the existence/occurrence of defective rental items or the failure of technical equipment, as well as to operational disruptions or other events affecting the Event. If the Host is liable for slight negligence or breach of a material contractual obligation, the amount of liability shall be limited to the foreseeable, direct average damage typical for the type of agreement; this limitation of liability shall not apply in case of culpable injury to life, limb, or health of persons. Accidents or damage must be reported to the Host immediately.

12. Carrying animals

Animals are not permitted on the Event Site with the exception of guide dogs for blind persons in accordance with Section 33 Para. 1 S. 1 SGB V and comparable assistance dogs.

13. Contact

14. Data Protection

Personal data is collected, processed, and otherwise used in accordance with the GDPR and the current privacy policy of the Host, available at www.chioaachen.de. The Customer is obliged to inform the Host immediately of any changes to their contact details during existing contractual obligations.

15. Amendments and Alterations

In case of a change in market conditions and/or the legal situation and/or supreme court rulings, the Host shall, even for existing contractual obligations, be entitled to amend and/or change these GTC with a notice period of four (4) weeks in advance, to the extent that this is reasonable for the Customer. The Customer shall be notified of the respective amendments using the contact details last provided to the Host, in particular by email. The changes shall be deemed approved if the Customer has not objected to the changes in writing, by e-mail or via the medium set up by the Host for this purpose within the period specified in the notification, provided that the Host has expressly referred to this fiction of approval within the notification. An objection shall entitle the Host to extraordinary termination of the legal relationship concerned.

16. General

16.1 Place of Fulfilment and applicable Law: Aachen shall be the sole place of fulfilment for all services. German law shall apply to the exclusion of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG).

16.2 Severability Clause: To the extent that any provision of these GTC is or becomes invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. Where a clause is partially ineffective, this shall not affect the remaining parts of the clause, to the extent that the ineffective part of the clause can be removed without forfeiting the meaning of the other part.

16.3 Jurisdiction: The place of jurisdiction for all disputes with merchants, legal entities under public law and special funds under public law relating to orders based on these GTC, including the organisation of the Event, shall be Aachen. The same shall apply to cross-border contracts, if there is no general place of jurisdiction in Germany or if the place of residence or ordinary domicile is unknown at the time the complaint is filed.

16.4 Dispute Settlement for Consumer Contracts: The European Commission provides on its website the following link to the ODR platform: <https://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr>. This platform shall be a point of entry for out-of-court resolutions of disputes arising from online sales and service contracts concluded between consumers and traders.

The Host is neither obliged nor prepared to attend a dispute settlement procedure before a Verbraucherschlichtungsstelle (see Sect. 36 VSBG).

16.5 Authentic Text: In case these GTC are available in several languages, the German version shall prevail. German law shall apply exclusively. If the contractual partner is a merchant within the meaning of the German Commercial Code (HGB), a legal entity under public law or has its general place of jurisdiction outside Germany, the exclusive place of jurisdiction for all disputes arising from and in connection with the contractual relationship shall be Aachen/Germany.

B) CHIO Aachen CAMPUS General Terms & Conditions (CAMPUS GTC)

With the CHIO Aachen CAMPUS ("CAMPUS"), the ALRV promotes the equestrian sport in its entirety. The CAMPUS is not only dedicated to top-class sport, but also to digital developments and innovations in order to support training, youth development and mass and amateur sport.

1. Scope

(1) These CAMPUS General Terms and Conditions ("CAMPUS GTC") apply to the legal relationship established by the purchase of participation authorisations and/or other access cards (collectively "Ticket" or "Tickets") at <https://www.chioaachencampus.de/> ("CAMPUS Online Shop") or <https://tickets.chioaachen.de/shops111> ("CAMPUS Ticket Shop") - collectively "CAMPUS Shop" - for the use of or participation in training, experience or other services ("CAMPUS Offers"), inter alia on the grounds around Albert-Servais-Allee 50 in 52070 Aachen ("Tournament Site"), and/or by "CAMPUS Value Vouchers" within the meaning of Section 5 between the ALRV and the respective purchaser, service recipient or participant ("Customer"). The Customer is aware that during his stay on the Tournament Site the Tournament Site Rules posted there apply (available at: <https://chioaachencampus.de/common/info/turnierplatzordnung.html>). By entering the Tournament Site, each Ticket holder recognises the Tournament Site Rules and accepts them as binding. The Tournament Site Rules apply regardless of the validity of these CAMPUS GTC.

(2) The Customer is a consumer insofar as the purpose of the legal relationship established on the basis of these CAMPUS GTCs cannot be predominantly attributed to his commercial or self-employed professional activity. A trader, on the other hand, is any natural or legal person or partnership with legal capacity that is acting in the exercise of its commercial or independent professional activity when concluding the legal relationship.

2 Ordering and Conclusion of Contract via the CAMPUS Shop

(1) Tickets for CAMPUS Offers or CAMPUS Value Vouchers can only be purchased from the ALRV via the CAMPUS Shop at www.chioaachencampus.de or <https://tickets.chioaachen.de/shops111> using the order or registration process communicated in each case. In case of ordering Tickets or CAMPUS Value Vouchers online via the CAMPUS Shop, a personal password will be issued upon registration of the Customer. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that no unauthorised third parties gain knowledge of their password. The Customer is liable for all unauthorised use by third parties in this context, unless the Customer is not responsible for the misuse.

(2) The presentation and advertising of CAMPUS Offers or CAMPUS Value Vouchers in the CAMPUS Shop does not constitute a legally binding offer by ALRV. Rather, it is an invitation to order or book (so-called invitatio ad offerendum) by the customer.

(3) In the event of ordering a Ticket for a CAMPUS Offer or a CAMPUS Value Voucher online in the CAMPUS Shop, the Customer submits a binding offer to conclude a contract with the ALRV using the online command provided for this purpose. The latter confirms receipt of the offer to the Customer. This confirmation does not constitute acceptance, but is subject to the availability of the Tickets ordered and the consideration of special circumstances (e.g. health or safety aspects). The contract for the respective CAMPUS Offer or the CAMPUS Value Voucher is only concluded between the ALRV and the Customer on the basis of these CAMPUS GTC once the Tickets or the CAMPUS Value Voucher have been sent (if applicable electronically) (or another express declaration of acceptance by the ALRV). Incidentally, a contract is concluded at the latest when the Customer's offer is implicitly accepted, e.g. by the provision of the ordered or booked service.

(4) Should a CAMPUS Offer or a CAMPUS Value Voucher that the Customer intends to order or book be unavailable (or no longer be available) (e.g. due to overbooking) the ALRV may, at its own discretion and as a gesture of goodwill, provide a waiting list for interested parties. In such a case, the Customer will receive a confirmation of their position on the waiting list via e-mail. A contract is only concluded when the ALRV expressly confirms the Customer's participation in text form.

(5) The ALRV reserves the right to limit the maximum number of Tickets available for sale as part of a CAMPUS Offer, as well as the number of available Tickets for individual Customers for a CAMPUS Offer or CAMPUS Value Vouchers. These limits are set at the discretion of the ALRV during the ordering process.

(6) The purchase, order or booking of CAMPUS Offers or CAMPUS Value Vouchers is only possible for Customers who are fully legally competent and have reached the age of 18. The use of CAMPUS Offers is generally also possible for minors or persons who are not fully legally competent, but may be subject to age restrictions, which will be indicated in the CAMPUS Shop in connection with the respective CAMPUS Offer. It is imperative to note that the order or booking of CAMPUS Offers intended for use by minors or persons lacking full legal competence must be executed by their respective legal representative(s).

3. Subject Matter of CAMPUS Offers

(1) The subject matter and scope of services of the respective CAMPUS Offer is based on the description of the components by ALRV ("Service Description") valid at the time of the order - available at www.chioaachencampus.de (subject matter and scope of services may vary depending on the CAMPUS Offer). Photographs and illustrations used in the Service Description are examples and serve as a general description. The photos and/or illustrations of e.g. activities, situations, persons, horses, locations, etc. are non-binding and may differ with regard to the actual realisation of the respective CAMPUS Offer.

(2) In the absence of an explicit stipulation to the contrary in the Service Description of the respective CAMPUS Offer, the provision of equipment is not included. The financial responsibility for these costs therefore lies with the Customer or participant.

(3) The information provided in the service description regarding the duration and programme of the respective CAMPUS Offer is intended to serve as a reference only and is not binding. The respective CAMPUS Offer may be conducted in groups, along with other customers and participants, as outlined in the service description. Waiting times for participation in the respective CAMPUS Offer cannot be eliminated. Any alterations to the service or offer components specified in the Service Description post-contractual agreement are subject to the provisions outlined in Section 10.

(4) The ALRV may engage the services of a third party to facilitate the delivery of individual components or the full scope of a CAMPUS Offer. Unless expressly stated otherwise by the ALRV,

- a) the CAMPUS Offer does not include any necessary travel to or from the respective venue or accommodation for the participant.; and
- b) the ALRV does not operate as a travel organiser within the meaning of § 651a BGB (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch - German Civil Code) regarding to the CAMPUS Offers.

(5) The ALRV does not want to grant participation in a CAMPUS Offer in accordance with the Service Description to everyone, but rather exclusively to those participants who have purchased Tickets as a Customer of the ALRV or within the scope of a permissible transfer in accordance with Section 9 (1) and who fulfil any other applicable participation requirements in accordance with Section 11, if applicable. The ALRV thus only grants a right to participate ("Right to Participate") to Customers who can be identified by individualisation features (e.g. name, bar/QR code and/or booking number etc.) printed on the Ticket (or, if applicable, specified in the express declaration of acceptance) or to secondary purchasers who have purchased Tickets in accordance with Section 9 (1) and who fulfil any additional participation requirements in accordance with Section 11. As proof of identity, the customer must carry an official document suitable for identification (e.g. identity card) with him/her when participating in a CAMPUS Offer and present it on request. In the event of a Ticket purchase as part of an unauthorised transfer in accordance with Section 9 (2), there is no right to participate. The ALRV reserves the right to refuse admission in such circumstances. Recourse claims against the ALRV are excluded in such a case.

4. Digital Products

(1) CAMPUS Offers may also be offered as digital content (e.g. digital courses) or digital services (e.g. video streaming) (collectively "Digital Products"). The general provisions of these CAMPUS GTC apply to CAMPUS Offers that constitute Digital Products, unless otherwise expressly stipulated in this section or below with reference to Digital Products.

(2) Digital Products are subject to regular copyright protection, meaning that Customers do not automatically acquire ownership of these products upon the conclusion of the contractual agreement. The customers are granted a simple and non-transferable right to utilise the Digital Products for personal use exclusively, in accordance with the provisions outlined by copyright law for each individual case.

(3) The Customer is prohibited from transferring, publishing, licensing, selling or otherwise commercially exploiting the Digital Products to third parties, whether for payment or free of charge, and/or modifying, adapting, translating, creating derivative works from, decompiling, reverse engineering or disassembling the Digital Products, unless ALRV has expressly authorised this in writing.

(4) The ALRV reserves the right to extend, change and/or improve the functions of the digital products offered and, where applicable, already purchased at any time, provided this is reasonable for the customer, taking into account the interests of the ALRV. If the changes affect the customer, the Customer shall be informed accordingly in text form (e-mail or via a communication channel in connection with the corresponding digital product).

(5) The ALRV shall provide the Customer with new programme versions at its own discretion during the provision period of the Digital Products communicated during the ordering process (generally until the completion of a respective digital programme, at the longest within a period of up to two (2) years after the purchase of the corresponding Digital Product), insofar as the Customer purchases the Digital Product beyond this period and this is necessary to maintain the contractual quality of the Digital Products. In such cases, ALRV shall inform the Customer of this in text form (email or via communication channels associated with the corresponding digital product). This may involve updates with technical modifications, improvements, minor functional enhancements and patches with corrections to the digital products or other workarounds for possible faults. It is the Customer's responsibility to install or apply the new programme versions without delay.

(6) ALRV is unable to guarantee that the use of the Digital Products will meet the Customer's needs and requirements or rather that the Digital Products will be uninterruptedly functional, up-to-date or error-free or compatible with the customer's operating systems.

(7) Furthermore, the ALRV provides no assurance regarding the functionality of the digital products, nor does it guarantee that they are virus-free or free from other potentially damaging elements. The utilisation of these digital products is undertaken at one's own risk. Specifically, the responsibility for any loss of data or damage to the operating system of the end device is exclusively that of the customer.

5. CAMPUS Value Vouchers

(1) CAMPUS vouchers can be purchased in the amount specified during the order process in accordance with Section 2 and can be redeemed for all CAMPUS Offers available in the CAMPUS Online Shop (www.shop.chioaachencampus.de) in accordance with the provisions of the ALRV. Vouchers cannot be redeemed for the purchase of Tickets for CAMPUS Offers or events that are purchased in the CAMPUS Ticket Shop (<https://tickets.chioaachen.de/shops111>). The ALRV can make payments to the respective holder of a CAMPUS voucher with discharging effect. If a CAMPUS Value Voucher is redeemed for a CAMPUS Offer, these CAMPUS GTC apply to the respective CAMPUS Offer.

(2) Any residual value on the CAMPUS Value Voucher (even after any effective cancellation or return of a CAMPUS Offer paid for by a redeemed CAMPUS Value Voucher within the meaning of Section 6 or 7) remains for the term of the CAMPUS Value Voucher in accordance with this Section 5 (3) and can (only) be redeemed for further CAMPUS Offers within this term. Cash redemption of the CAMPUS Value Voucher and any residual value is excluded, as is the payment of interest on it during or after the term of the CAMPUS Value Voucher.

(3) The validity of the CAMPUS Value Voucher is subject to the statutory limitation period of three (3) years from the end of the year in which the respective CAMPUS Value Voucher was purchased from ALRV (cf. § 195, 199 BGB).

6 Prices and Terms of Payment

(1) The Ticket price for participation in the respective CAMPUS Offer or CAMPUS Value Voucher is determined by the ALRV price information that is valid at the time of the order - available at www.chioaachencampus.de (prices vary depending on the CAMPUS Offer or CAMPUS value voucher). In addition to the Ticket price, the ALRV may impose a surcharge on the customer for postage costs in the event of postal dispatch, or an appropriate service fee (e.g. an advance booking fee) for other services provided in the interests of the customer.

(2) Orders for Tickets for a CAMPUS Offer or CAMPUS Value Vouchers will only be processed against prepayment and with the accepted payment methods via the payment service provider Stripe, Inc. This enables payment via iDEAL, cards (Visa, MasterCard, American Express), Apple Pay, Klarna Link, PayPal, among others. The Stripe payment service provider is located at 510 Townsend Street, San Francisco, CA 94103, USA. The respective payment service provider may refuse the desired payment method under certain circumstances.

(3) Should the payment not be successfully executed for reasons attributable to the Customer (e.g. insufficient credit card or account coverage, chargeback), the ALRV reserves the right to cancel the order or booking of CAMPUS Offers or CAMPUS Value Voucher without replacement. Any additional costs incurred must be reimbursed by the Customer. The ALRV also reserves the right to assert further claims for damages.

Within the framework of the applicable data protection regulations, the ALRV is authorised to use the personal inventory, usage and billing data (e.g. the user's address) required to collect the claim in order to pursue its own claims.

7. Right of Withdrawal

(1) If the purchase of CAMPUS Offers or CAMPUS Value Vouchers is a (consumer) distance contract within the meaning of §§ 310 para. 3, 312c BGB, the Customer concerned has a right of cancellation.

Withdrawal policy (pursuant to Article 246a § 1 para. 2 sentence 2 EGBGB [Einführungsgesetz zum Bürgerlichen Gesetzbuch – Introductory Act to the Civil Code], Annex 1)

Right of Withdrawal

You have the right to withdraw a (consumer) distance contract concluded via the CAMPUS Shop within fourteen (14) days without giving reasons, as outlined in §§ 310 para. 3, 312c BGB. The withdrawal period lasts for fourteen (14) days from the day on which you or a third party named by you, who is not the carrier, take possession of the goods. To exercise your right of withdrawal, you must inform us at the following address:

Aachen-Laurensberger Rennverein e.V. (ALRV),

P.O. Box 50 01 01, 52085 Aachen, Germany

Telephone: 0241-9171-0,

e-mail: campus@chioaachen.de

You can use the sample cancellation form available HERE, but this is not obligatory. In order to comply with the stipulated withdrawal period, it is sufficient to transmit a notification of intention to exercise the right of withdrawal prior to the expiration of the withdrawal period.

Consequences of the withdrawal

If you withdraw from the contract, we will refund all payments received from you, including delivery costs where applicable (except for the additional costs resulting from your choice of a different delivery method than the cheapest standard delivery offered by us), without delay and in any case no later than fourteen (14) days after the date on which we receive your notification of withdrawal from this contract. We will use the same means of payment for this repayment that you used for the original transaction, unless expressly agreed otherwise with you; under no circumstances will you be charged for this repayment.

End of the withdrawal policy

(2) In the context of a contract for the delivery of Digital Products or content that is not on a physical data carrier, the right of withdrawal shall also expire if ALRV has begun to execute the contract after the Customer has given their express consent and at the same time confirmed that they are aware that the right of withdrawal expires when ALRV begins to execute the contract.

(3) The right of withdrawal expires prematurely if the purchased CAMPUS Offer or the CAMPUS Value Voucher has been fully provided to the Customer and the execution of the corresponding service has only begun after the Customer has given their express consent and at the same time confirmed their knowledge that the right of withdrawal expires upon complete fulfilment of the contract by the ALRV. In such an event, should customers exercise their right of cancellation prior to the full fulfilment of the contract by the ALRV, they shall be obligated to provide compensation for the value of the services that have been rendered.

(4) With regard to CAMPUS Offers that involve a time-bound leisure activity (e.g. training sessions or training camps, tournaments, competitions etc.), the Customer has no right of cancellation in accordance with Section 312g para. No. 9 BGB. Every offer submitted by the Customer is therefore binding immediately after confirmation by the ALRV and obliges the customer to accept and pay for it.

8. Return of CAMPUS Offers or CAMPUS Value Vouchers

(1) In addition to the right of withdrawal as outlined in Section 7, Tickets for or CAMPUS Offers or CAMPUS Value Vouchers can only be returned or exchanged for a fee as a gesture of goodwill on the part of the ALRV; the Customer has no corresponding claim unless the ALRV expressly communicates otherwise during the ordering process

(2) If a Customer is unable to use their Ticket for personal reasons or is unable to take advantage of the CAMPUS Offer (e.g. illness), the Ticket for the respective CAMPUS Offer may exceptionally be passed on to a third party within the framework of the regulation under Section 9 (1).

(3) CAMPUS Value Vouchers may be transferred to third parties for private purposes and without the intention of making a profit. Section 9 (2) and (3) apply accordingly.

9. Transfer of CAMPUS Offers

(1) The transfer of Tickets for CAMPUS Offers is only permitted with prior consent and in accordance with the relevant requirements of the ALRV (in particular naming the new participant). For this purpose, the Customer must request the ALRV's consent and the corresponding specifications in text form (e.g. e-mail) in good time. A transfer will only be permitted in the designated individual case with the corresponding consent of the ALRV in text form (e.g. e-mail).

(2) The Customer is prohibited from offering CAMPUS Offers to the public, in particular on the Internet, or otherwise selling them at a price higher than the price paid or on a regular basis; the Customer may also not use CAMPUS Offers commercially or commercially, in particular for advertising purposes, as a prize or as part of an unauthorised hospitality or travel package, unless ALRV and the Customer have expressly agreed otherwise in writing.

(3) In the event of one or more violations of the provision in Section 9 (2), the ALRV shall be entitled to cancel the Ticket concerned for the respective CAMPUS Offer and to refuse the Customer participation in the respective CAMPUS Offer or access to the Tournament Site without compensation, or to expel him from the show grounds, and to exclude the Customer concerned from purchasing, ordering and booking Tickets for CAMPUS Offers for a reasonable period of time.

10. Reschedule/Discontinuation of CAMPUS Offers, insignificant Changes of Service

(1) The ALRV is entitled to cancel, postpone, reschedule or, if necessary, abandon CAMPUS Offers for good cause, in particular due to changes in the availability of the testimonials who may be participating in the context of a CAMPUS Offer, official or veterinary requirements or unfavourable weather conditions.

- (2) If the start of a CAMPUS Offer is rescheduled to another time on the same day of the event, the Tickets ordered or booked shall remain valid. In such cases, the Customer has neither a right to a (pro rata) refund of the price paid nor a (partial) right of cancellation against the ALRV. In the event of a CAMPUS Offer being rescheduled for a longer period of time (i.e. to another event day), the corresponding Tickets will remain valid and the Customer will have the option to revoke the contract. In order to revoke, the Customer must notify the ALRV in text form (by email is sufficient). Upon presentation of the Ticket or the corresponding declaration of acceptance by the ALRV for the respective CAMPUS Offer, the Customer concerned will, at the ALRV's discretion, either receive a refund of the price paid to (in the case of multi-day CAMPUS Offers, also pro rata if necessary) or a voucher to the value of the corresponding price for redemption in the CAMPUS Shop, unless the allocation of a voucher is unreasonable for the Customer. Service and dispatch fees already incurred will not be refunded.
- (3) If a CAMPUS Offer is cancelled both ALRV and the affected Customer shall be entitled to revoke the contract for the purchase of the CAMPUS Offer in accordance with the conditions outlined in Section 10 (2).
- (4) If a CAMPUS Offer is discontinued, there will be no (partial) refund of the price paid, nor does the Customer have a (partial) right of revocation of the concerned contract, unless the ALRV is responsible for the discontinuation.
- (5) If the CAMPUS Offer is only slightly different from the original announcement (in particular, but not exclusively, if the announced trainer cancels, if the location is changed due to weather conditions, etc.), the Customer has neither a right to a (partial) refund of the price paid nor a (partial) right of withdrawal.
- (6) The ALRV shall not be liable to the Customer or participant for futile expenses (e.g. costs for travelling or accommodation) in cases covered by Section 10 (2) to (5).

11. Eligibility Requirements

- (1) Participation in a CAMPUS Offer may require a minimum level of personal eligibility (e.g. height, age, state of health, weight, athletic ability) ("Eligibility Requirements"). The Eligibility Requirements for the respective CAMPUS Offers are specified by the ALRV in the service description of the respective CAMPUS programme - available at www.chioaachencampus.de (Eligibility Requirements vary depending on the CAMPUS programme).
- (2) For good cause, for instance due to externally prescribed protective or hygiene measures, the ALRV is authorised (and, if applicable, obliged) within the framework of data protection regulations to define special participation requirements for the participation of the customer or participant in a CAMPUS Offer and to enforce compliance with them. In particular, ALRV is authorised
- a) to make certain requirements and/or proof a condition for Ticket purchase and/or participation in the respective CAMPUS Offer (e.g. proof of health status), and to have the participant provide proof of this as a prerequisite for participation immediately before participating in the respective CAMPUS Offer; or
 - b) to impose additional regulations, provisions and requirements on the purchase of tickets or participation in the respective CAMPUS Offer (e.g. distancing requirements). These will be communicated to customers in a timely manner and must be observed by all participants from the time of announcement.
- (3) If the Customer or participant is unable to fulfil the Eligibility Requirements or special conditions of participation in accordance with Clause 11 (2) a) and b), the ALRV reserves the right to refuse the purchase of Tickets or participation in the respective CAMPS Offer. In such an instance, recourse claims against the ALRV are excluded.
- (4) If the ALRV only announces Eligibility Requirements or special conditions of participation in accordance with Clause 11 (2) a) and b) after the Customer has purchased the corresponding Tickets, the Customer may withdraw from the contract. The consequences of withdrawal set out in Clause 10 (2) shall apply. There is no right of withdrawal if the Eligibility Requirements or the special admission conditions according to Clause 11 (2) a) and b) were already generally known when the Ticket was purchased, or expires at the latest when the Customer participates in the respective CAMPUS Offer.

12. Customer Obligations and Insurance

- (1) The Customer or participant must comply with safety-related instructions and requirements of the ALRV (in particular the obligation to wear a helmet for all persons sitting on horses) as well as its staff or those responsible on site or within the framework of the respective CAMPUS Offer, in particular if the CAMPUS Offer includes physical or sporting activities. In the event of non-compliance, the ALRV is entitled to exclude the customer or participant from participation in the respective CAMPUS Offer.
- (2) The Customer or participant assures that his state of health meets the respective conditions of participation and declares that he is physically able to train accordingly and that there are no health concerns insofar as participation in a CAMPUS Offer requires physical or sporting activities, in particular on the basis of the service description and the conditions of participation.
- (3) During participation in the respective CAMPUS Offer, the Customer or participant agrees that in the event of physical impairment, injury and/or accident, medical (initial) treatment may be provided by ALRV or an authorised third party at the participant's expense.
- (4) The Customer or participant must provide sufficient insurance cover for cases such as those described in Section 12 (3) and shall indemnify the ALRV against any claims relating to the costs of the aforementioned measures.
- (5) While participating in the relevant CAMPUS Offer, the Customer or participant will comply with the FEI Code of Conduct in the interests of fairness and safety in relation to the horses. This places the welfare of the horses first and requires that they are treated with respect, care and consideration for their physical and mental health at all times. The legal consequences of any violation of these principles are governed section 12 (1).

- (1) Participation in a CAMPUS Offer and entering the Tournament Site is at your own risk.
- (2) Claims for damages by the Customer against the ALRV are excluded. Excluded from this are claims for damages by the Customer arising from injury to life, limb or health or from the breach of essential contractual obligations (cardinal obligations) as well as liability for other damages based on an intentional or grossly negligent breach of duty by ALRV, its legal representatives or vicarious agents. Essential contractual obligations are those whose fulfilment is necessary to achieve the objective of the contract. In the event of a breach of material contractual obligations, ALRV shall only be liable for foreseeable damage typical of the contract if this was caused by simple negligence, unless the Customer's claims for damages are based on injury to life, limb or health.

(3) Accidents or damage must be reported to the ALRV immediately.

14. Recordings of Participants

(1) The ALRV or third parties commissioned by the ALRV may independently of each other make image and sound recordings for public reporting in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. f) DS-GVO, on which the Customer can be seen as a participant in the respective CAMPUS Offer. These image and sound recordings may be processed and used by the ALRV within the scope mentioned above and, in particular, may also be publicly reproduced on the ALRV's channels on the internet.

(2) If a Customer purchases Tickets not only for himself but also for other participants who are entitled to participate, the Customer is required to ensure that the information in this section is forwarded to the participant concerned. The provisions on the permissibility of forwarding Tickets in accordance with Section 9 remain unaffected.

(3) Further use of recordings of participants by the ALRV is generally based on separate consent. Further information on data protection can be found in section 15.

15. Data of the Customer

(1) Information on the collection, processing and use of personal data can be found in the privacy policy, available at www.chioaachencampus.de.

(2) The customer is obliged to inform ALRV immediately of any changes to their contact details during existing contractual obligations.

16. Instruction of the Security Staff

The instructions of the stewards, security personnel, police and other personnel authorised by the ALRV in front of and on the Tournament Site must be followed.

17. Recording of the Event

It is not permitted to make, reproduce, transmit or otherwise use or distribute sound, photo, film or video recordings or other descriptions of CAMPUS Offers for commercial use without the consent of the ALRV. The same applies to the support of other persons in such activities. Section 4 (3) remains unaffected with regard to digital products.

18. Place of Performance

Aachen is agreed as the place of performance and fulfilment.

19. Applicable Law and Place of Jurisdiction

(1) The law of the Federal Republic of Germany shall apply to the exclusion of the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. For consumers who have their habitual residence in another country at the time of their order, the application of mandatory legal provisions of this country shall remain unaffected by the choice of law made.

(2) For Customers who are merchants and have their registered office in Germany at the time of the order, the exclusive place of jurisdiction shall be the registered office of ALRV in Aachen. Otherwise, the applicable statutory provisions shall apply to local and international jurisdiction.

20. German Version

In case these CAMPUS GTC are available in several languages, the German version shall prevail.

21. Equalisation

Insofar the masculine form is employed in the CAMPUS GTC, the term is to be interpreted as inclusive of female and diverse persons.

22. Effectiveness of the Clauses

In the event of the invalidity of a single clause of these CAMPUS GTC, the validity of the remaining clauses shall not be affected. In the event of a clause being partially invalid, the remaining parts of the clause shall not be affected, provided that the invalid part of the clause can be deleted without losing the meaning of the other part.

23. Changes

In the event of a change in the legal situation or jurisdiction, ALRV is also authorised to amend these CAMPUS GTC for existing contractual obligations with a notice period of four (4) weeks, or two (2) weeks in advance for good cause, provided this is reasonable for the customer. The Customer will be notified of the respective changes using the contact details last provided to ALRV. The changes shall be deemed to have been approved if the customer has not objected to the changes in writing, by email or via the medium set up by ALRV for this purpose within the respective period after receipt, provided that ALRV has expressly referred to this fictitious approval.

C) Show Ground Regulations

authorised way, are allowed to stay on the show grounds.

- (2) Tickets and authorised passes / show passes have to be shown when entering and on the show grounds when requested by the security and attendants service or by the police. By request a proof of identity should be provided in an appropriate manner.
- (3) The ticket loses its validity when leaving the show grounds. For a short leave of the show grounds the security/attendants at exits are to be addressed accordingly and their instructions to be followed in order to make a renewed entry possible.
- (4) Lost entry tickets cannot be replaced.
